“We were just sitting there talking and people moved in on us. It was as casual as all that... it just came about.”
-Dorothy Day
The Long Loneliness

Better and Better off.

1. The world would be better off, if people tried to become better.
2. And people would become better, if they stopped trying to become 'better-off.'
3. For when everybody tries to become better off, nobody is better off.
4. But when everybody tries to become better, everybody is better off.
5. Everybody would be richer, if nobody tried to become richer.
6. And nobody would be poor, if everybody tried to be the poorest.
7. And everybody would be what he ought to be if everybody tried to be what he wants the other fellow to be.
